

Meet Scott Graves

Scott Graves is a professional guitarist who founded the On Track Music Guitar School in 1992. The On Track Music Guitar School has become known as “the place” to learn to play guitar in Utah. Scott works daily helping private students and bands to develop their musical skills the right way. He coaches at least eleven bands on a weekly basis and is constantly developing new and exciting ways to improve upon his already phenomenal guitar program.

Scott started playing guitar at the age of seven and started playing professionally at the age of eighteen. He graduated from G.I.T., the world famous Musician’s Institute, in 1986. Scott was signed to an instructional video deal with Backstage Pass Productions in the early 1990’s. The owner of the prominent Los Angeles based company viewed Scott’s work on “Intro to Playing Rock Guitar” and decided the title would be a great addition to their line of existing videos by famous rock stars. Scott’s videos were distributed throughout the United States and Canada and quickly became one of the companies top sellers.

During the 80’s, 90’s and 2000’s, Scott has played and recorded professionally throughout the Inter-Mountain West with some of the areas most talented musicians. Scott’s work with Rock It Science and The Scotty Boys reflects a true understanding of professional entertainment, which guarantees success for every client who books one of these incredibly entertaining acts.
